Castelgiocondo Brunello di Montalcino DOCG, Tuscany, Italy, 2013 x 2

Intense ruby red in colour, the wine expresses clearly defined aromas of raspberry and red summer fruits, further enriched by elegant floral violet notes. On the palate CastelGiocondo Brunello 2013 is harmonious and well-defined wine with elegant tannins and a sapid and mineral persistence. The wine has a long, lingering finish.

Felsina Berardenga Rancia Chianti Classico Riserva DOCG, Tuscany, Italy, 2012 x 2

From one of Tuscany's most historical vineyards, this is a luminous and radiant wine made from Sangiovese. Rancia delivers a beautiful sense of roundness and softness with dark berry, blackberry, leather, spice and rose petal. This is an articulate and sophisticated wine that will pair well with red meats.

Pieropan Soave Classico, Veneto, Italy, 2018 x 2

Delicate nose of almond blossoms and marzipan; good depth of fruit on the palate, nicely balanced by a zingy acidity that enhances its long length.

Planeta La Segreta Sicilia Rosso, Sicily, Italy, 2016 x 2

From Planeta, the award winning Sicilian winery, Segreta is made entirely from Nero d'Avola, Sicily's generous flagship red variety. On the nose aromas of redcurrant and mulberry intermingle with a minty spice. A succulent yet fresh palate has flavours of ripe red fruits. Versatile with red meats and tomato dishes.

Felsina Berardenga Rancia Chianti Classico Riserva DOCG, Tuscany, Italy, 2015 x 2

The Rancia vineyard takes its name from an ancient farm in correspondence of a pre-existing Benedictine monastery. The grapes come from the highest and noble part of the Rancia area at an altitude between 400 and 420 meters above sea level. 'Lovely fresh and dried Bing cherry nose with herbal accents, suede-like tannins and a balanced, mid-weight palate.' Debra Meiburg MW

Pala Stellato Vermentino di Sardegna, Sardinia, Italy, 2018 x 2

Intense straw yellow colour with greenish tinges, brilliant. Intense, lingering aroma with vegetable and floral fragrances of Mediterranean scrub and summer fruits. Pleasant nose-palate harmony, warm and full of good depth and perky acidity, balanced.

Tenuta Sette Ponti Crognolo Toscana IGT, Tuscany, Italy 2016 x 2

Crognolo, is the second wine of Tenuta Sette Ponti which become famous for producing the opulent and rich Oreno Super Tuscan. Wild italian herbs accent this Super-Tuscan blend of native Sangiovese and Merlot. The mid-palate bursts with intense black cherry and red plum, balanced by powdery back-palate tannins and spicy oak nuances at the finish.

Castello Monte Vibiano 'MonVi' Rosso Colli Perugini, Umbria, Italy, 2014 x 2

This beautiful expression of Sangiovese enhanced by Merlot and Cabernet Franc comes from Castello Monte Vibiano, a historical estate in Umbria, central Italy. The expressive nose offers berry and cherry notes. Partly aged for 18 months in oak the palate offers bright fruit, spices and light vanilla aromas. Excellent with chicken and duck dishes.

Planeta 'Cometa' Fiano Menfi, Sicily, Italy, 2018 x 2

Broom flowers, thyme, chamomile, hay and mandarin. A mineral palate with vibrantly savoury traces. The finish presents a silky tactile sensation with a refined aftertaste of ripe apricot, of almond flowers and basil flowers.
