Guy Amiot Chassagne Montrachet VV, Bourgogne, France x 2

Since 1920, generation after generation, the Amiot family have plunged their roots in the soil and terroir of Chassagne-Montrachet. This wine is fruity and fleshy with an enjoyable promise of red fruits and spices in the background. A pretty ruby colour, wood fruit notes and a tannic structure able to enhance flesh and complexity give the "Old Vines" cuvée a stylish expression in 2013.

Champy Puligny Montrachet, Bourgogne, France, 2018 x 2

Founded in 1720, Maison Champy now runs a large part of its 21 hectares of vines on the Côte de Beaune – especially in Pernand-Vergelesses – organically in order to preserve and highlight the true character of this exceptional terroir. This wine has a beautiful, golden colour with hints of silver. An open, elegant nose which offers lemony and white, floral notes (white flowers, acacia, bergamot, orange). Well-defined and rich on the palate, as is typical of Puligny. Elegant, mineral finish, with a long and steady persistence.

Saint Reol Brut Grand Cru NV, Champagne, France x 2

In the heart of Ambonnay in 1962, 58 audacious wine producers came together and founded the Saint-Réol Champagnes. Today, their values are shared by more than 230 passionate wine producers. This Champagne has a light gold colour with engaging aromas blending pitted fruit, citrus, and mineral aspects. Very pleasant to the palate with a balance between robustness, freshness and fruit overtones all held together by a pleasant and fine structure.

Chateau Mazeyres, Pomerol, Bordeaux France, 2018 x 2

Château Mazeyres is in one of the smallest Gironde appellations, Pomerol, widely recognised for the aromatic intensity of its wines and the typical features of its terroirs sat within an exceptional geological framework. Alain Mouïex is the director of Château Mazeyres and the wine is fully Biodynamic. This wine is a deep, bright colour. On the nose, the wine develops blackberry and strawberry purée aromas. Blackcurrant emerges once swirled. The wine is very complex and heralds a hugely soft touch. It does not disappoint on the palate. The beautifully fresh finish covers a complex range of aromas.

Vasse Felix Heytesbury Chardonnay, Margaret River Australia, 2017 x 2

Established in 1967 by regional pioneer Dr Tom Cullity, Vasse Felix is Margaret River's founding wine estate. One of the great wine regions of the world, Margaret River enjoys a truly unique environment and climate which makes it a paradise for winemakers and wine lovers alike. This wine is elegant on the nose, with fragrant notes of hazelnut, mealy wafer and brioche intertwine with grapefruit, hints of fine lemon pith and honey dew melon. Underlying tones of candlewax, champignon, ginger and fennel also play a part in this complex perfume. On the palate, a satin light entrance builds to a long, tangy dry finish filled with delicate characters reminiscent of peach custard brioche, hazelnuts and candle wax, supported by fine lemon pith and anise.

Saint Réol Vintage Brut Grand Cru, Champagne, France, 2008 x 2

Saint-Réol Champagne is among the rare brands of Champagne to be entirely commercialized as Champagne classified Grand Cru. With a light golden straw colour, this champagne has notes of light citrus, mineral hints and spicy notes. On the palate it has great taste with fruity notes that melt in the mouth, acidity and elegant bubbles offer a generous aftertaste.

Chateau de Sales, Pomerol, Bordeaux France, 2016 x 2

As ever-fewer estates remain family-owned, the largest one in Pomerol is still run by the same family as it was almost five centuries ago – an exception indeed in the Bordeaux region. Château de Sales has been passed down from generation to generation ever since the 16th century, when it was acquired by the Sauvanelle family. Since 1578, Château de Sales has seen four different families: the Sauvanelles, the Desaignes, the de Laages and the Lamberts, the changes in name occurring when the estate was passed down through the women of the family. Château de Sales is currently owned by the Lamberts and their children, who are direct descendants of the Sauvanelles. This wine has a highly complex nose which opens up with airing on notes of black berry fruit such as bilberry and blackberry. Fresh and well-balanced on the palate, it is fullbodied and displays attractively complex flavours, especially black fruit, with a touch of oak, leading into a remarkable finish sustained by well-integrated and silky tannins.

Hartford Court Chardonnay, Russian River Valley, Napa, USA, 2019 x 2

Hartford Family Winery was founded in 1994 as a result of Don and Jennifer Hartford's appreciation for the wines, the people, and the unique vineyards near their Russian River Valley home. Located in the Sonoma County town of Forestville, the winery is about 15 miles from the cool Pacific Coast. Offering subtle aromas of jasmine flower, green apple and pear, this wine has elegant aromatics that are complemented by flavours of fresh kiwi, lemon drop and green apple.

Saint Reol Elegance Grand Cru, Champagne, France, 2008 x 2

The Saint-Réol Champagne wine vats are in cellars located in the heart of Champagne where over 2.3 million bottles age at more than 20 meters below the ground. With a golden yellow, thin and lush foam, the nose is complex and slightly roasted, opening up after airing. We can detect toasted hints and dry fruit. The palate is well structured and rich, leaving space for a beautiful fresh finish. A powerful and mineral vintage.
